

UIL Capital Conference

28th Annual UIL Capital Conference

June 27-28, 2024

AT&T Conference Center and Hotel - UT Austin

Thursday, 9 am - 5:30 pm

Friday, 9 am - 4 pm

Think of it as Coaching School for UIL Academics!

This summer's in-person conference offers a wide array of sessions geared for academic coordinators, coaches and administrators for grades 2-12 of all academic contests. This year's conference will be held Thursday and Friday, June 27-28 on the campus of UT Austin. Online classes will not be offered.

Specific classes will be offered for first-time and veteran coordinators/coaches for high school, elementary, middle school and junior high. Sessions will include every academic event for high school academic coaches and coordinators for literary events, journalism, STEM, theatre, and speech and debate, as well as an assortment for A+ coaches and coordinators.

CPE Credit

Attendees seeking to earn Continuing Professional Education (CPE) credit may track courses attended on this form. After the conference, UIL will email certificates to attendees to pair with the CPE tracker.

For conference overview and registraton information, go to:

<https://www.uiltexas.org/academics/capital-conference>